The Cows in the Mortgage.

There is a man in Taylor county who knows how to mortgage cows. The Montezuma Record knows this map and vouchers for him. The man is a farmer, and recently a collector called on him for the payment of a note secured by chattel mortgage.

The farmer was obstinate and gave no satisfaction that he would ever pay the note. Finally the collector said: "Well, I'll have to take the 11 cows named in the mortgage."

"Oh, no, you haven't got a mortgage on 11 cows on this farm."

"Why, yes, I have." And the collector pulled out a copy of the mortgage and read as follows:

"One red and white cow, one cow spotted red and white, one red cow with white spots, one cow with white spot in forehead, one red cow with two white hind feet, one white cow with red spots on side, one white and red cow, one red cow with two white fore feet, one white cow with red spot on shoulders, one red cow with white spots on hips, one white cow spotted with red." Now, how do you like that?" continued the collector. "Oh, that's all right. I see you've got 11 mortgages on my old red and white cow. There she is down in the pasture. The boys will go down and help you catch her!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A Racial Difference.

There can be no question that very many of the differences, mental and bodily, that exist between the average Frenchman and the average Englishman are caused by the distinct methods of education that prevail on the different sides of the channel. You would not like your son's only schooling to be obtained in France. On the other hand, you have a pretty distinct belief that if French boys were sent over here young enough and put to good English schools, they would grow up into a very fair sort of Britons. A typical story of the ways of French school-boys, with their ushers, is reported in recent morning papers. Some spirits had been smuggled into one of the dormitories—a thing, we fear, not altogether unknown in some English establishments. It is even conceivable that the English master who discovered the bottle would have confiscated it to his own use, but this would not have been at the invitation of his pupils. But the French pique in question was contented to make one of the party, and as he was not so used to rum as his pupils, he got so terribly drunk that he died. Happily for the French boys, their compulsory military service gives them an opportunity, later on for learning a little discipline.—Pall Mall Gazette.

The Thief Discovered.

An employee in an up town resort has been held under suspicion for some time, and came near losing his position, on account of the antics of a big tomcat. For weeks the cash registers, when counted at the close of the day's business, showed a deficit of several dollars, and no clue could be had to explain the mysterious absence of the money. The proprietor, having great confidence in his employee, was mystified, and not until a few nights ago was the matter made clear. While alone in the place, after closing hours, the proprietor was startled to hear the click of the registers, followed by repeated clicks, like those of a novice upon the keys of a piano. Looking up, he found his pet cat playing upon the keys of the register and apparently enjoying the performance as much as if he were a feline Padreswinski.—New York Journal.

Vindicated the Law.

A friend of Representative Culberson of Texas related the following incident: "When Mr. Culberson was prosecuting attorney," he said, "there was a criminal statute universally disregarded. The indictment of a well known man for violation of this law was secured through the efforts of Mr. Culberson, who prosecuted the case with more vigor than almost any he had ever conducted, and, ceasing to the penitentiary. Then he left town, and no one knew where he had gone until he and the prisoner, who had been taken to the penitentiary, returned together. Mr. Culberson had gone to the governor, obtained a pardon, and met the convict at the penitentiary with it. The law had been vindicated, and there were no more violations of this statute in Jefferson."—Washington Star.

Not Enough Muses.

The universal manager who protested when he found a performer in his orchestra holding his bow during a rest, saying to him, "I don't pay you to rest!" was the same one who, on another occasion, was superintending the arrangements of some performers who were representing allegorical characters. "Here in front," said the author of the piece which was to be given, "we will put the three muses." "Nine muses!" exclaimed the great manager contemptuously. "Nine muses would look well in that great space, wouldn't they? We will have 86 muses!"—Youth's Companion.

MEN AND WOMEN to make big money with the Practical Plating Dynamo is the electrical machine used in the great plating factories; $65 to $85 a week made easy. Plates everything; no experience; big profits. Address W. P. Harrison & Co., Clark St., 14, Columbus, Ohio.

Health and strength carry us through dangers and make us safe in the presence of peril. Disease germs do no harm in a healthy body. Ageria is not a big thing, and it is only physical weakness that makes it dangerous. A perfectly strong man with rich, pure blood, has nothing to fear from germs. He may breathe in the miasm of consumption with impunity. Nature is continually working, to throw off any impurities that may come into the body, but if there is a weak spot where the germs may find an entrance to the tissues, then the trouble begins. Disease germs propagate with lightning-like rapidity. Once in the blood, they quickly fill the whole body. The only way to get rid of them is to kill them. This is what Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is for. It purifies the blood, and means that it kills the germs, but that is only part of what it does. It assists in the digestion of food and puts the digestive organs in a perfect condition. It stimulates the secretion of digestive fluids, so promoting assimilation and nutrition. It fills the blood full of healthy red corpuscles. It purifies and enriches every drop of blood in the whole body and so supplies the tissues with the food they need. It builds up strong, healthy flesh and puts the whole body into a disease-resisting state. Nine-tenths of all human ailments come from the same cause—impurity in the blood. Take almost any disease you please and trace the cause of it—you will find it in the blood. Purify and enrich the blood and you remove the cause, and so you cure the disease inevitably and infallibly. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures all diseases depending upon poor, impoverished, thin, impure blood.

THE SITUATION IN KENTUCKY.

The persistent refusal of the Kentucky Legislature to elect a gold standard Senator is likely to result in bloodshed. This is the last day of the legislative session and there was no quorum in the joint session yesterday. The Governor issued a proclamation in which he declared that the members of the General Assembly had been intimidated and overawed. The Governor therefore called out the militia and over 400 State troops occupied the Capitol grounds yesterday, and no one was admitted to the State House except the members and attaches of the Legislature and newspaper reporters. The Senators unseated by the Democrats were admitted, however, but Dunlap, who was given a seat by the Republicans did not appear.

An indignation meeting was held and largely attended to protest against the action of the Governor in calling out the troops. The Mayor of Frankfort said he assured the Governor that he would give ample protection, and characterized the Governor's action as intensely partisan. Speeches condemning the Governor's course were applauded and the feeling against him was intense.

The legislative session expires today by constitutional limitation. If the revenue bills are not passed an extra session will doubtless be held and probably a United States Senator will be elected before it adjourns. It seems almost too long after the war to introduce in Kentucky the legislative methods in vogue in South Carolina and Louisiana a quarter of a century ago and to give the military authority to say who shall be admitted to the legislative halls of a sovereign State, but the gold trust will stop at nothing to accomplish its ends.

SHOW YOUR COLORS.

The Sacramento Bee is taking a lively interest in the silver question and makes some pointed remarks on the subject. It suggests that the Pacific Coast delegation to the Republican National Convention stand as a unit for silver. This some of the Californian Republican papers say is sheer nonsense. In reply to this the Bee says:

"If Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Utah, Nevada, California, Oregon and Washington allow their delegates to enter the National Republican Convention in go-as-you-please order, each man at liberty to whom for Reed, or McKinley, or Allison, and to let the cause of silver be entirely lost in the scramble, what will the East think? What can it believe except that the alleged voice of the Pacific Coast for silver is only the echo of the wishes of a few mine owners, reverberating through the hats of a score or two of politicians?"

"Let the Pacific Coast go united and determined to vote as a unit for some man who will stand out firmly and squarely as the friend of silver, and more will be gained for the cause than could be accomplished by a dozen speeches in Congress."

Will the Pacific Coast delegation follow the advice of the Bee and present a solid front for silver, or will they meekly submit to the will of the gold men and then return and tell the people they are for free coinage, but pledged to support a gold standard candidate for President?

SOLID SUBSTANCES MADE TRANSLUCENT.

Thomas A. Edison, the great electrician, has been practically conducting experiments with the cathode ray since the discovery of its peculiar properties by Professor Roentgen was announced. He has now progressed so far in his experiments as to make it possible with the naked eye to see through a solid block of wood eight inches in thickness. He says it is simply a question of perfecting the apparatus and a more powerful light when the human eye will be able to see through solid metals, brick walls, sealed letters and the human body.

MORTON'S FRIENDS TO TAKE ACTION.

Joe Manley of Maine, Secretary of the Republican National Committee, has been figuring on the chances of candidates in the Republican National Convention. Of the 200 delegates chosen there are serious contests in the cases of 34 of them, leaving 166 delegates, whose preferences are as follows: McKinley, 57; Reed, 36; Allison, 32; Quay, 26; Cullum, 10; and Morton, 5.

A conference of Morton men has been called and it has been practically decided by his friends to come out squarely and emphatically for the gold standard. The action of the Ohio Republican convention in trying to straddle the financial question has aroused the Morton men. They think they can make friends for their candidate by making a plain, unequivocal declaration that he is for gold and gold only. Morton, it seems, has but five delegates out of 166 elected outside of New York State and his friends fear that he will get left unless they declare absolutely for gold and he opens a barrel to prove its potency in securing delegates.

THE ALLEGED LAND FRAUDS.

United States District Attorney Jones says he did not instigate the suits against the settlers in this county. He was ordered by the Attorney-General at Washington to bring the suits in the name of the United States. The Government has information that the power of attorney alleged to have been given by Musso to Chapman was forged and if such proves to be the fact Chapman will be prosecuted. However, that would be poor consolation for those who purchased lands over thirty years ago of Chapman, who held a United States patent issued to Musso for the same and what purported to be a power of attorney from Musso to dispose of them. Both the patent and the power of attorney are of record in this county and those who acquired title from Chapman as agent for Musso in 1864 and 1865 now learn for the first time that there is a cloud on the title and they must stand the expense of defending their homes in a suit brought by the Government.

LOCAL AND GENERAL NEWS.

Items of Interest From Here, There and Everywhere.

The word "city" has been officially dropped from Boise in the postoffice department at Washington.

Colonel Jerry Moore tells the Elko Independent that the snow fall during the late storm was very heavy in the Ruby range.

The Dayton Times says the first load of ore from the Logan and Hully mine in Como was hauled down Wednesday and a load has arrived each day since.

The Sierra Valley Record, published high up in the mountains, says Spring has come, and in proof of it states that wild flowers are in bloom and the drummers are in town.

It is reported that the old Maine town of Verona never had a clergyman, a lawyer or a postoffice, and yet plods along under the impression that it is alive. Possibly it has a local newspaper. If so all is explained.

One extreme follows another, says the Proche Record. A month ago eggs were in demand at fifty cents a dozen, while last week they sold on the streets at seven cents. If the Utah hens hear of this they may go out on a strike.

There is a clerk at an Idaho Indian agency who indulges in dreams of filling a niche in the temple of fame by reason of wearing a mustache which measures nine feet from tip to tip, and strange to say, he bears the common sense name of Brown.

A person visited Nevada City a short time ago, and represented that he was authorized to engage miners to go to Alaska upon extremely favorable terms. Several workmen threw up good positions, and have since been awaiting summons from the gentleman to report at San Francisco. But since leaving there the Alaskan contractor has not been heard from. It is now believed he was a fraud.

H. S. Merrill says Eastern Oregon is overrun by useless horses which are becoming wild, and the people are at a loss to know what to do with them. There are 100,000 horses in Eastern Oregon that can't be given away, and we can't afford to let them run wild on the ranges for they will breed so fast that the country will be ruined by them. The only solution to this problem I see now is that we will have to kill off 50,000 to 100,000 head and use the carcasses for fertilizing purposes.

WOMEN FOR SCHOOL TRUSTEES.

Ten Ladies in the Field in Eureka. The Eureka Sentinel says there are no less than ten ladies in the field for the office of School Trustees. Some question has been raised as to the eligibility of women for the position, the Sentinel quotes the following from Article XV, Section 3, of the Constitution:

Section 3. No person shall be eligible to any office who is not a qualified elector under this Constitution. No person who, while a citizen of this State, has, since the adoption of this Constitution, fought a duel with a deadly weapon, either within or beyond the boundaries of this State, or who has acted as second, or knowingly conveyed a challenge, or aided or assisted in any manner in fighting a duel, shall be allowed to hold any office of honor, profit or trust, or enjoy the right of suffrage under this Constitution. The Legislature shall provide by law for giving force and effect to the foregoing provisions of this section; provided, that females over the age of 21 years, who have resided in this State one year, and in the county or district six months next preceding any election to fill either of said offices, shall be eligible to the offices of Superintendent of Public Schools and School Trustees.

Women have been elected to the office of County Superintendent of Public Schools in Nevada and there can not be any doubt as to their eligibility to the office of School Trustees.

Most Remarkable Remedy in the World.

The True Medicine for Lost Nervous Strength.

Without an Equal in Purifying and Enriching the Blood.

Great Cures Effected by Paine's Celery Compound—What Scientific Research Has Accomplished—Proved by Success Where All Else Has Failed.

There is one true specific for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system, and that is the Paine's celery compound so generally prescribed by physicians. It is the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced. Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, first prescribed what is known the world over as Paine's celery compound, a positive cure for dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism and kidney troubles. For the latter Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

Sufferers from neuralgia, neuralgia headaches and rheumatism should stop short their morphine, quinine and such pain-killing drugs. No cure can be hoped for from those temporizers. There is one way of getting rid forever of the causes of all this suffering; that is by taking Paine's celery compound. In this great modern remedy the real means to health is attended to; sleep is made sound and refreshing, the appetite improves and the nerves stop complaining, because they get the nutriment their nature requires. This is the fundamental, rational way that Paine's celery compound takes to be able to cope successfully with diseases of the liver, kidneys and stomach, and to guarantee a complete return of sound sleep, good digestion and a quiet, well regulated nervous system.

Syrup of Figs

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

CARSON MINT SHORTAGE.
THE TRIAL OF JOHN T. JONES—THIRTEENTH DAY.

Arguments of Counsel—U. S. District Attorney Jones Followed by Attorney Dennis-Woodburn and Clarke Tomorrow Submit the Case.

(Correspondence of the JOURNAL.)
CARSON CITY, March 16, 1896.

Court and everybody connected on hand at 10 A. M. pursuant to adjournment from Saturday. Jury upstairs ready to be called upon when required. The U. S. Circuit Court was announced to be in session, Judge Hawley presiding. Attorneys Deal, Buffaker, Torreyson & Summerfield and others interested being on hand. The proceedings amounted practically to setting the numerous cases for trial during the term, commencing next week and running through till June. The drawing of the U. S. Grand Jury is already fixed for the 23d, next Monday, and the trial of Henry Piper, charged with mint crookedness, postponed until the 25th, two days later. His Honor, however, stated that Piper's case would not take more than the day set, therefore would not be in the way. Court adjourned at 11 A. M. till next Monday at 10 A. M., the Court announcing that the District Court would meet at 1 o'clock.

When the District Court met, a goodly crowd of spectators and auditors were present, including ladies, to hear the talented arguments.

United States District Attorney Jones led off with one of his ablest addresses to the jury. In considering this case you have to carefully consider the chain of circumstances shown during the trial, involving the guilt or innocence of the defendant, and you will agree with us that the chain is complete, proving his guilt. Over 3,000 ounces of gold has been shown to have been stolen from the mint. Somebody did it who had full chances of getting away with it. The shortage in this case was through spurious melts covered up and utilized by combination melts passed through annual settlements. The report of the Director of the Mint, Preston, at Washington, tells that in 1893 there was a large surplus of silver in the various mints, and this mint shows 3,000 ounces surplus.

In 1893 the spurious Bodie melt was here as testified to by Mr. Mason, and before the annual settlement of that year. The party who made it had reason for it, and the exact date of the extraction of the gold from the original leaving silver in its place of exactly the same weight is not essential so long as it was known to have been done, and the evidence, as you have heard, goes to show that it was done at or about the time stated.

The defense claims in exoneration that at the mint annual settlements from 1893 down, the coin, bullion and everything turned out satisfactory to the Government inspectors or agents sent out from Washington, and clean official receipts are shown for the same. All very true perhaps, yet if to-day that same spurious melt were placed on the scales it would show as correct in weight as it did before when it passed acceptably through those settlements without being discovered. The mint books balanced all right and the clean official receipts were passed.

Mr. Mason tells you that the color of silver bars may be deceptively changed by a small amount of copper and the true test is assaying. The original Bodie melt consisted of eight shoe bars while the spurious imitation, with nearly all the gold extracted and silver in its place, was ten and one-third bars to make it the exact weight of the original. Some sort of a pretense has been made that others could have made this shortage. You have to decide whether John T. Jones is the guilty party.

Melter and Refiner Zabriskie was sick and infirm and called Jones to his aid, the defendant in this case, whom he knew as a man of experience and ability, while he had to be absent most of the time seeking health. Some one must have made that spurious melt who had full command of and access to all facilities. Harris would not be satisfied with the assurance of Assistant Jones that he would find the shortage in the slugs, and the result you have heard.

Jones left for San Francisco on a visit of business and pleasure right when Harris was having the most trouble and anxiety, and probably might have had that small gold bar, No. 106, worth $707, in his pocket, taken from the shelf full of small bars in the vault to which only he and Harris had access and the combination. The loss was discovered next day in weighing and checking off the bullion in the vault and the defense has the assurance to accuse Harris of stealing it. Defendant has testified that he originated and kept the only consolidated melts record book, but we have shown that two others were kept before that. Harris had no interest in the mutilation of the consolidation melts book by abstracting leaves to conceal that spurious melt 104, or any other. Defendant came into the mint poor and in debt, and soon became affluent, to have a big bank and stock account and have money to loan, also to keep up a system of extravagant good fellowship expenditure ever since. Gentlemen, it is your duty to consider all the evience and circumstances fairly in this case and decide accordingly.

Attorney J. F. Dennis followed with an opening argument for the defense, ably and well delivered throughout, reviewing the principal points of the case and presenting them in a proper light from the defense standpoint. He made honorable mention of the scholarly and able testimony of Mason and others and their evidence, if correct must be strongly considered. A great crime has been committed, but he did not feel able to fix it on Harris or any one else in the case. You are expected to do that. He went on to show that in every instance throughout this trial, wherever the prosecution has endeavored to prove Jones the guilty party, it proved that Harris or two or three others had equal facilities and might be guilty instead of Jones. Mr. Mason is a nice old gentleman, but when he gets an impression into his mind he cannot readily or easily get rid of it. He says the shortage was done through numerous spurious melts covered up and disguised in consolidation and settlement melts. Yet he has not definitely shown this satisfactorily.

Mr. Dennis spoke an hour and fifteen minutes, fifteen minutes longer than Jones, and in this condensed report it is impossible to give more than a brief synopsis. His remarks were all gentlemanly, straight to the point, effective and good.

At 3:10 Court adjourned till 10 A. M. to-morrow.

THE OLD LIME KILN.

All the Special Scenery Will be Shown.

Katie Putnam has evolved an original idea in the scenic equipment of her play, "The Old Lime Kiln." The scenery of the Yellowstone National Park has been drafted upon for some subjects, but the crowning set is an exact reproduction in miniature of the cottage and grounds owned by Miss Putnam at Benton Harbor, Michigan, and occupied by her as her summer house. All the special scenery will be shown at McKissick's Opera House next Saturday night.

Board of Commissioners.

The Board of Commissioners met as a town Board yesterday, all present.

Chief Engineer Hodgkinson asked permission to send engine No. 6 to Carson for repairs. The request was granted and the order was made accordingly.

A petition was presented to have the sewer extended through blocks 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5 in the western part of town and the order was made.

A petition with the names of nearly 100 taxpayers was presented to the Board, remonstrating against the enlargement of the storage capacity of the Standard Oil Company's oil house in the eastern part of town; also asking that an order be made prohibiting the storage of oil within the city limits. A number of taxpayers were present and added the strength of their argument to the petition, but the Board, in its wisdom, laid the matter over until the meeting on the first Monday in April. Of course the convenience of a corporation like the Standard Oil Company must be considered before any hundred other taxpayers and by the general order of things no doubt it will, and the probability is that the house will remain where it is and the storage capacity be increased, notwithstanding it is a menace to valuable property.

The Beckwith Hotel.

Marra & Lafranchini will take charge of the Beckwith Hotel, Plumas county, on May 1, 1896. This hotel is one of the best known in the country, not only as a popular hotel, but situated as it is in one of the most beautiful valleys in California and in the very heart of the Sierra Nevada mountains makes it a pleasant place for tourists, fishing and hunting parties. The heavy timber covering the adjacent mountains gives the Beckwith Hotel a peculiarly picturesque situation, and the broad Sierra Valley with its feather river winding through its entire length affords a beautiful landscape. Messrs. Marra & Lafranchini will endeavor to maintain the well established reputation of the hotel as a resort and stopping place, and the traveling public may be assured of the best of treatment at the most reasonable rates.

BREVITIES.

The Dixon Brothers announce that they will have Spring lamb and chickens for all customers and the public generally next Saturday. Do not forget to call and get a supply for your Sunday dinner.

A. S. Philip and wife, relatives of Mrs. Joseph McCormack, arrived from Virginia last evening. Mr. Philip is connected with Wells, Fargo & Co's auditing department at San Francisco and was formerly a Nevada.

George R. Bliss has returned from California, where he went about two weeks ago to be examined as to his qualifications for the West Point cadetship. Stanley Hamilton, who was also examined at the Presidio, has returned.

The following were arrivals at the Hotel Reno yesterday: John Terlin, Sacramento; Mrs. H. Bennett, Susanville; A. Shenker, San Francisco; Alfred Anderson and S. Johnson, Elton Mill, Cal.; John Dey, Silver Peak, and Grant Robinson, Montana.

On the first of March the wages of men employed on the Miller & Lux ranches in Mason Valley were reduced from $25 to $20 per month. The men, including those who were feeding cattle, quit work and published a card in the Yerington Register in which they say they ask nothing unreasonable, and if Miller will restore the old rate they will go back to work.

Thorough Workmen.

The Burke Bros. have completed their contract on the Girl's Cottage at the University, and last Saturday the Regents accepted the building formally and highly commended Messrs. James and Peter Burke on the excellence and thoroughness in which the work was done. There was no hitch or question, but every detail was carried out to the letter and the Regents cheerfully ordered the final payments on the work to be made.

The Burke Bros. have been residents of Reno for nearly twenty years, and are not inclined to make any great show, but would rather their work would be their recommendation. They have, during their residence in Reno, built a number of large buildings and have as far as possible labored for the interest of Reno. Whatever either of them contract to do may be depended upon and it is their aim to give full value on every contract. As an illustration of their reliability the Investment Company has awarded the contract to them to build the company's building on the corner of Sierra and Second streets, and there is no doubt but what the work will be first-class.

A Household Treasure.

D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house, and his family have always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it if procurable. G. Drykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at S. J. Hodgkinson's, Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

The Contract Awarded.

The following figures were submitted for the erection of the Investment Company's building on the corner of Sierra and Second streets: C. E. Clough, $17,747; G. E. Holesworth, $16,745; Burke Bros., $16,200; F. M. Schadler, $16,800; R. Ryland, $16,850. After due consideration the contract was awarded to Burke Bros. at $16,200. Work will be commenced at an early day.

A Gentleman of the Old School.

President Kruger lives up to his Puritan principles. When in Paris, he refused all invitations to go out on a Sunday, and he thought the costumes worn by ladies at the opera or parties very immodest. He said he could not think how any lady who respected herself could look at a ballet. The only books he had ever read besides the Bible were the "History of the Princes of Orange," Morley's "History of the Dutch Republic," Macaulay's writings on William of Orange and "The Pilgrim's Progress." He said that in the Transvaal when a boy was sent to school he was provided with a gun and a pound of ammunition. He could then bring home a bag of game and defend himself against the Kaffirs, but the parents tried, nevertheless, to make these self-reliant boys understand that the meek shall inherit the earth.

Another story told of President Kruger is that when he got home from his visit to Europe he said England was well enough, but the land seemed to be all owned by somebody. One could not even go out into the country and sit down under a tree to smoke his pipe but somebody would come along and say that he owned the land and ask what the smoker was doing there.—Buffalo Courier.

Ducking Stools.

Ducking stools are noticed as existing formerly at Chester, Cambridge, Rugby, Southampton, Coventry, Nottingham, Southwell (Notts), Bedford, Grimsby, Scarborough, Hull, Beverley, Macclesfield, Hilder, East Aylesbury, Craven, Manchester, Liverpool, Preston, Kirkham, Burnley, Derby, Chesterfield, Kingstons-Thames and Leicester. Examples of the actual instrument seem still to be preserved at Leominster, Ipswich, Scarborough and Leicester. The latest recorded use of the ducking stool (the designation cucking and ducking were, of course, synonymous in the days of Queen Elizabeth) was in 1809. It was at Leominster, when a woman named Jenny Pips, alias Jane Corran, was paraded through the town on the ducking stool and ducked in the water near Kenwater bridge by order of the magistrates. In 1817 another woman, called Sarah Locke, was wheeled round the place in the same chair, but not ducked, as, fortunately for her, the water was too low. The instrument of punishment in question has not been used since then.—Notes and Queries.

A Soothing Car Ride.

The latest cure for insomnia is cheap. The remedy was suggested by an old doctor to whom a despairing young man had gone for advice. "Of course," said the doctor, "I could give you drugs that would put you to sleep, but in the case of a young man that is to be avoided. The reason you cannot sleep is your nerves are overstrung. That does not necessarily mean that you must put your nervous system to sleep by the use of drugs. What you want is a mild excitement, that will lift your nervous system out of the rut it has fallen into. The best thing in the world to do that is a trolley ride. Don't try to settle upon a particular route. Just jump on any car that comes along. Don't even ask the conductor where the car is going, but just go along with the car. It will surely come back some time to the point where you took it. If the route is eight or ten miles long, so much the better. One thing is certain—you will either sleep during the ride or as soon as it is over."—Philadelphia Record.

Saw Him Fed.

Contrary to general belief, Monahan is not dead, or he must live in the persons of some of the continental tourists you meet around the Metropole and the Victoria. They repeat this conversation of one of those enterprising but prevaricating end of the century explorers: "I visited Russia, Germany, Austria, Italy."

"Indeed! So you saw Venice?"

"Well, I rather guess I did."

"Did you see the lion of St. Mark?"

"Of course I did. Why, I saw him fed."—Washington Post.

Passenger—Not after you took mine.

Conductor—But I do not remember taking yours.

Passenger—Very likely. Neither do I.

COUGHS AND COLDS

ELY'S PINEOLA BALSAM is a sure Remedy for coughs, colds, sore throat and for asthma. It soothes, quiets, cures the cough and renders expectoration easy.

Consumptives will invariably derive benefit from its use. Many who suppose their cases to be consumption are only suffering from a chronic cold or deep seated cough, often aggravated by catarrh of the throat.

For catarrh of the throat Ely's Cream Balm, both remedies are pleasant to use. Cream Balm, 50c. per bottle; Pineola Balsam, 25c. Sold by Druggists.

The Tale Told of a Doctor.

Appropos of doctors' beards and microscopes, a lady writes: "Several years ago I took the steam cars to and from school. For a week or more our family physician took the crowded noon train, always sitting very near me, and entering into conversation. On questioning his sister-in-law about his trips, she said: 'Oh, he has a smallpox patient at C., and is afraid to take his carriage for fear of communicating contagion. So he takes the train.' I always supposed his professional eye looked on me as a prospective smallpox patient."—Boston Transcript.

Christmas Tips.

One of the objections to Christmas boxes, writes James Payn, is that one is seldom quite certain whether one is giving to the right people. Dumas tells us that he took some pains to discover one Christmas day what he was paying for. A second lamplighter excited his suspicions. "I have already made my little present," he said, "to the man that lights the street lamp." "Yes, sir," returned the other, "but I am the man who puts it out."

An Able Youth.

Mamie—Has Charley acquired any accomplishments since he went to college?

Flossie—I should say he had. You ought to see how easily he keeps a cigarette in his mouth when he's talking.
